

Free Workshop - November 4th and 5th 2008

This free, skills based communication workshop is a unique opportunity for youth/health workers to gain confidence and practical skills in discussing issues about self esteem, communication, relationships, sexual health and consent with young people.

The workshop is interactive and certificates will be provided.

Participants will have the opportunity to preview and practise activities and strategies that can assist you in discussing sensitive issues with your clients.

You will also have the opportunity to share ideas with other workers and experts in the field.

Communicating about Sensitive Issues

Topics the workshop will be covering

- Resources to aid difficult discussions with young people about sensitive issues
- Discussing Hepatitis and Blood Borne Viruses
- The influence of the media on sex and sexuality in young people
- Communicating with young people about sexual health and relationships
- An opportunity to access practice using relevant tools such as the One 2 One Resource.
